Hold fast to dreams
For if dreams die
Life is a broken-winged bird that cannot fly.

Hold fast to dreams
For when dreams go
Life is a barren field
Frozen with snow.

To the Class of 1973:

You, the Class of '73, have selected "Dreams" as your yearbook theme. Dreams are flights of fancy, a means of escape, the unfulfilled hopes and desires of the individual, the seedlings of creativity, the embryo of man's imaginings. In dreams you can be anywhere, anything or anybody. You can be a king or a pauper, famous or infamous; there are no limitations. But, in dreams, can you actually be what you want to be?

Only youth and old age can afford much time for dreaming. Young adults must face reality. Reality that bluntly shows you have certain abilities, some skills and a smattering of knowledge. Reality that bursts the bubbles of dreams and demands diligent application so that the writer, the secretary, the musician, the plumber, engineer or lawyer of your dreams can become an actuality. Dreams are pleasurable, but fulfilling them is richly satisfying.

The faculty and administration sincerely wish that each member of the Class of '73 fulfills their dreams and finds real satisfaction and true happiness.

Sincerly,
John A. Murray
Principal

Dedication

Mr. John McGovern

Mrs. Harriet Donovan

We would like to dedicate this yearbook to the following individuals who have given their time to education, and who are ending their tenure this year.

Mrs. Lillian Dunbar

MRS. DONOVAN has been working in the Guidance Department of Abington High School for 13 years. She feels that the students have been basically the same throughout the years, because they have the same type of problems. She loves working with the students, and she shares in their joy when they obtain what they want. Mrs. Donovan is a very dedicated, wonderful woman, and we wish to thank her for her faithfulness and her help.

MRS. DUNBAR has been teaching a Abington High School for the past 25 years. She has been a very active woman, her activities including: teaching in various communities, much business experience, and involvement in community projects. She has held many reliable and coveted positions throughout the years. The students of this school appreciate her liveliness and the knowledge she has shared with them. We want to thank you, Mrs. Dunbar, for the many years of your time which you have given to us.

MR. McGOVERN has been superintendent of the Abington School System since 1964. Among his accomplishments include the establishment of curriculum study committees and the advent of programs for the handicapped. Mr. McGovern has held various education posts for the past 34 years. He hopes to remain in the field of education at the college level. We would like to thank Mr. McGovern for his many years of service in our community.

From The Editors

With high aspirations, lots of ideas, plenty of energy, a new advisor, large staffs, and no money, we began our 1973 yearbook. It has been a long road, with much hard work, many hassles, a lot of fun, and new friendships.

We want to thank our staff who devoted so much of their time in this busy senior year. It was rough — but we did it — and on time!

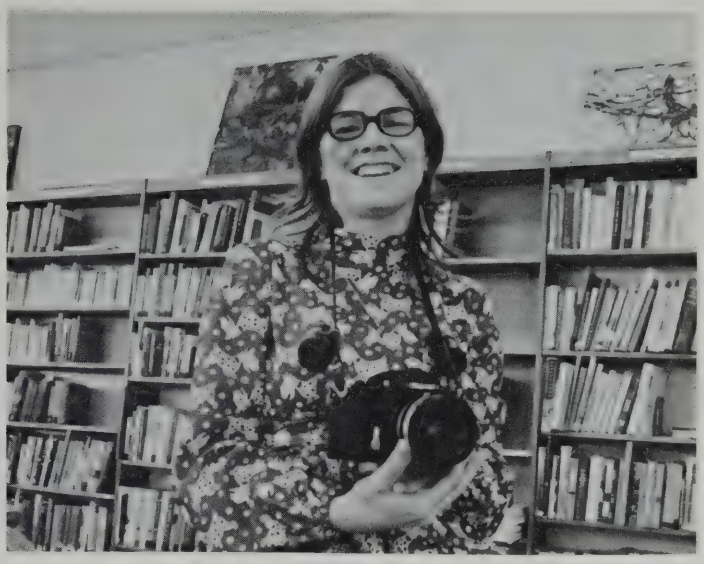

Our special thanks go to Mrs. Reardon for putting up with our yearbook materials, and for saving us from exhaustion with her Cokes and Fritoes.

We couldn't have done it without the cooperation of all — so thank you.

SENIORS

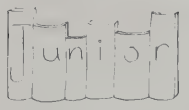

Once Upon a time, in September '69;
The gang from St. Bridget's met the clan from the Junior High.
Tom Dion was so big, he made Griff look like a twig.
We picked out Michael Leonard, fearless as a flea
To lead us on as the Class of '73.
As the year progressed, we started drinking booze,
But with big Moose's prices, we all soon sang the blues.
Ties and no culotte's, that was the rule,
and if you wore long hair, you got kicked out of school.
Silly Jeffrey Cahill ruined the day,
When he let a snake go at Mr. Louis' play.
We had our first dance, and like we said;
We made $500 and that's a lot of bread.
We all went on our outings, they both were very cloudy
And that was the reason why we got a little rowdy.
They put us on the second floor, so Murray could protect us
But no matter where we hid, the seniors could detect us.
Then we took our finals, they were such hard tests,
That they sent us home for the summer for a little rest.
Some of us left for P. C. C., others for the park
Where we had parties till way after dark.

Then we became sophomores, we thought we were so tough,
We thought that maybe this year we'd get away with stuff.
And then one day in English, Mark's piggy-bank was low,
So for a mere five dollars, out the window he did go.
Then we picked as leaders, Robin, Mark, Karen, and Jim;
Whom we thought would fill our treasury to the brim.
To get this done, we had some dances,
And with their start, so did romances.
Our spirit at the rallies, it truly was the best,
So when the seniors got the prize, we thought it was in jest.
Then there was the J.V. team, the game had come to blows,
And all the fans left the stands, to break Gil's little nose.
Then came the Rockland game, and we all knew they cheated,
When they turned the clock back, to make us look defeated
And then the Sadie Hawkins dance, oh, what a bore.
Most of the kids wished they hadn't even come through the door
For our sophomore outing, we went to Sandy Neck,
But we didn't stay there long, 'cause we raised holy heck
And then we crawled back on the bus, our spirits very high.
But when policemen started to come, we couldn't help but cry.
So then we left the beach, and we didn't bother to look back,
But if we had, we would have seen screaming Jerry Mack.
And so towards the end of the year, we ordered our rings,
And left for the summer to do many things.

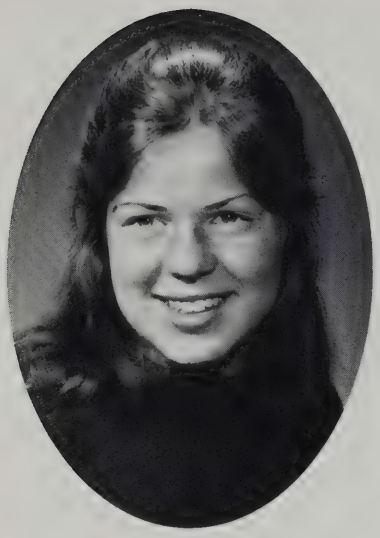

As into our junior year we progressed,
From Mr. Hart and Miss Baeher we were pressed.
Questioning us repeatedly, "Where are you going from here?"
But the hazy path ahead of us was far from being clear.
Their words were unheeded, until one fateful day,
"What does PSAT/NMSQT' mean anyway?"
Multiple guess and connect the dots became the rule,
But to take college boards ya gotta be a fool.
Then there was the Christmas party, Griffin was so jolly.
And all because there were more than Christmas trees and holly.
It started out at 7, and we were feeling mighty fine,
But because of Booth & Dooly, we had to leave at nine.
That was the year of licenses.
Mark, Rodney and Jerry had the cars,
But Giver had the special one.
He checked out all the bars.
Then there came the Rockland game, that was some night.
We couldn't win the game, but we did win the fight.
One day, we couldn't get our way, so we all sat on the lawn.
But after a couple of hours, most of us were gone.
Mark and Jim were our leaders, they took us high and low.
On their command, to the prom we would go.
"All things Must Pass," was to become renowned,
And for that one night we owned the town.
Paul Cotter couldn't get the car, and he was blue,
So to the prom he and Ginny flew.
In the June of '72 our Junior year was through.
We worked by light, and played at night.
The summer went fast, but the freedom didn't last.

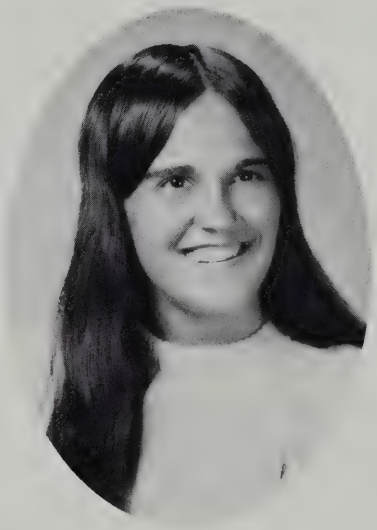

In the fall of '72, our fun and games were through,
But that was in the teacher's eyes, they were in for a big surprise.
Then there were the courses that no one knew they took,
And then came the project of starting our yearbook.
We won the first football game, we had a ball.
But they still laughed at us 'cuz we were so small.
On the weekends, we puzzled the fuzz,
"Cuz they never knew just where we was.
They ranted and raved into a fit,
And finally found us at the Pit.
We got new posters in the caf,
We'd only been waiting three years and a half.
A new election system was run,
And in the end, George Roberts won.
Graduation will end our high school years.
A lot of hopes, a lot of fears, a lot of dreams, a lot of tears. . .

Cross Country

record: 0-9

Cross country - a new experience for those who were tough enough to make it through, and for those who already knew of it, a familiar joy. Mud, rain, and once in a while, a sunny day, accompanied us on our magical mystery runs. All in all, we felt it was worth it.

Fall Sports Banquet-Awards, speeches, and smiles.
Sweaters, jackets, certificates of merit (and a roast-beef dinner!)

Hockey

FIRST ROW, LEFT TO RIGHT-F. Gilpin, J. Heckler, C. Welch, J. Iaccobucci, R. Cox, C. Tower, S. Devlin, B. Clark, V. Austin. SECOND ROW, LEFT TO RIGHT-B. McMann (coach), R. Parquette, J. Gilpin, R. Grecco, B. Workman, R. Cox, J. Buote, P. Rowell, P. Heckler, B. Roose, B. Harrington, R. Coleman, M. Tulley (assistant coach), D. Hatch (assistant coach).

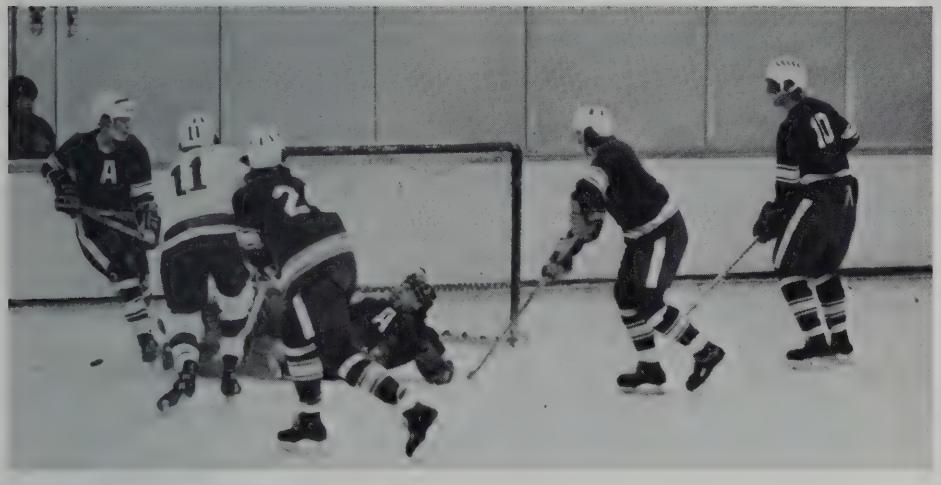

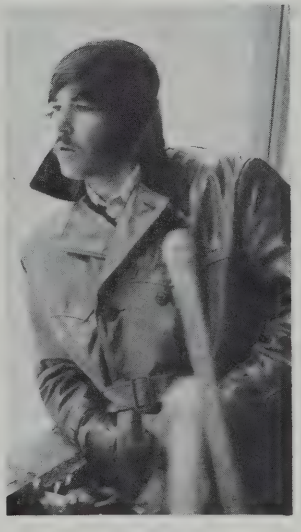

ICE HOCKEY

It was a young team: there were only two seniors. The team included twelve lettermen; our goalie Fran Gilpin was an All Star team member in 1972; Chuck Tower was an All Star team member in 1973. The team lost every game it played this season.

Silver-Lake	1-2,	2-7

STUDENT ADVISORY COUNCIL TO THE SCHOOL COMMITTEE

Gary Minnehan, Albert Sten, Mark Beaton, Terry Graham, Sue Beaton (not pictured), Supt. McGovern.

Due to a new state law, student of Massachusetts high schools have elected representatives to meet with their school committees. Each student body elects five representatives.

EDUCATIONAL GOALS COMMITTEE

Mr. Nash, Rose Maloof, Don Erickson

The purpose of the Educational Goals Committee is to develop a report for the state of Massachusetts which summarizes the opinions of citizens, administrators and students concerning particular areas of education in which the state desired information.

FRENCH CIRCLE Officers: President- Brenda Cook Treasurer- Joan Clawson
Vice-President- Sheila Cody Secretary- Jannett Stoddard

The purpose of the French Circle is to provide opportunities for the use and enjoyment of the French language and culture. In addition, the French Circle awards an annual scholarship of $150.00 to that senior, accepted to an accredited college or university, who has attained the highest numerical average in French IV.

Advisor
Mr. Halet

Library Aides
Advisor: Mrs. Reardon

Math Club Advisor: Mrs. Johnstone

The Math Club is open to freshmen and sophomores and was formed to show that math is not all hard work and drudgery. No one needs to be a mathematical genius to belong to this organization, for our aim is solely to provide members with recreational activities related to mathematics.

Audio-Visual Aides Advisor: Mr. Corcoran

The purpose of the Audio-Visual Aides organization is to assist the faculty and students by delivering the various types of audio-visual equipment on request of the faculty. The group also keeps records on, and knows the location of, all of the audio-visual equipment-at all times. The Audio-Visual Aides organization can be very rewarding to anyone interested in electronics.

Math League

The Math League provides an opportunity for mathematically talented students to compete with equally capable students from other schools. Our math team is a part of the Greater Boston Math League, South Division. Abington does fairly well in the division, usually placing third in competition with ten other teams.

Boy's and Girl's State Representatives

Prophecy

5-4-3-2-1-0..."Ignition LIFT OFF!"

With WAYNE MOONEY piloting, CHARLES GORDON & NANCY ROWE co-piloting, JAMES REICHERT navigating, and DANA GRILLO transmitting the take-off was a success--and we were on our way to our 25th class reunion where GLORIA GRAHAM and BOBBY HALL had arranged for everyone to stay with former classmates living on the moon. EDITH ADAMS started the flight with a salute to the flag and LAURA SULMONTE directed KAREN RANDALL, JUDY CONANT, and JEANETTE MARTIN, CINDY MORGAN and TONY BRADFORD in a rendition of the "Star Spangled Banner." Then the stewardesses, DEBBIE DENNISON, SHELLEY JANTZEN, DIANE DEVLIN and VALERIE FAY served refreshments.

About the only interesting incident of the flight was when MARK BEATON and MARK WARNER, fooling around in the space mobiles, crashed into the walls. PATTY BLINN and SUE BENNETT on the way to their rooms, spotted the accident and rang the emergency alarm. BRENDA COOK, chief-of-staff of the ship hospital, followed by x-ray technicians, DIANE PETITTI, and ROBIN LOUGHMAN and nurses JANET WAYNE, NANCY WORKMAN, MAUREEN HEALY, MARILYN COX and DENISE SAULENAS responded to the call. ROBBIE ROLLINS and BOB APPLEBY put them on stretchers and carried them away. It was rumored that they had just left the bar where MICHAEL LEONARD and TOM MCIVER were bartending. Still there was CHARLIE WELCH pinching the barmaid JANE LITTLEFIELD.

Suddenly the rocket announcer, LARRY CAPLICE, instructed us to prepare for a landing. Within a few moments, we had landed on the moon. We were greeted by Mayor GEORGE ROBERTS, and the moon band which included DEBBIE TISDALE, PAM PHILLIPS, GEORGE BRADY, JUDY MURRAY, NANCY ROBERTS, BETH MURPHY, and JEAN BUTLER played "Yay green, yay white." Starting the assemblies with a prayer were KATHY WELCH, JUNE RANDALL, and JANET PRALL. With GARY COOK, chief-of-police, and DENNIS SYLVESTER as guides, we started our tour to see what our former classmates had achieved in 25 years after graduating from Abington High School. We stopped at the business district first, owned by HAROLD WARE, the moon's first multimillionaire. Working for him are his many secretaries: CINDY BACON, DIANE BELL, SUE ORCUTT, GINNY CONNORS, MARIE MATTIE, SANDY PIERCE, DONNA DAVIS, and his accountants LINDA SEITSINGER, JANICE GLAZEBROOK, and ANNE DUCHANEY.

Next we headed for the school. On our way, we went past JERRY's Shoe Store, MARY & BILL's Bakery and MCHUGH's Joke Shop. As we approached Moonington High School, we were greeted by Principal-ROSEMARY MALOOF & Vice-Principal-SUE PASTER. First we were introduced to the secretaries, DONNA BIRMINGHAM & PAULA REISS. During our tour, we met various teachers, including: MARYELLEN AHEARN-senior teacher, SARA PHILLIPS-gym teacher, JANNETT STODDARD-music teacher, NANCY EWALT-home-ec teacher, DONNA VALLER-cheerleading advisor, LINDA JONES-cafeteria worker, and LEE HENRIKSON, Professor of Mathematics.

As we leave the school, we were hungry so some stopped at McDonald's, where SHIRLEY SIMMONDS waited on them, and others stopped at the restaurant where BURKE, HECKLER & HARRELL are cooks, waitresses were KAREN DEMPSEY, ROBIN DIGIOVANNI, MARYJANE O'NEIL, MICHELLE LOLLES, & DONNA DAMON, and in the back room slaved SCOTT SANDERSON, head dishwasher. After a meal, we got a flat tire on our moonmobile and so we stopped at DAMON's Mooniac & SCHLUNT-BODEIN, ROLLINS, O'NEIL, FELIX, & HOBART fixed them in a jiffy. Then we ran out of gas and pushed it to the gas station where BRAD FARRINGTON, MIKE BROWN, SKIPPY BATSON & FRED MCCARTHY were working. On the way to the courthouse, we went by DONLAN & BOOTHBY'S store where DEBBIE LAPOINTE, JOY LEONARD, KAREN ROOSE & MARLENE DOW were working hard. Down in a dark alley, COOK points our GLINIEWICZ, SALOMINI & Mafia-leader NISBY. On the left, we see GAGNE's bowling alley, where THE WIELICZKI's NICHOLSON were the best bowlers. Across the street is the earring factory owned by PAUL COTTER, and then comes AL STEN's clock factory. We pass GRIFFIN's Moon Milk Farm. Finally we arrive at the courthouse, where we run into town clerk, JOELLEN AHEARN. We see the D.A. DON ERICKSON prosecuting MAURICE AMPUJA & RICHARD CONRAD for breaking into DONNA NICKERSON's appliance store. Defending them was ANDREA MACKIEWICZ. Jury members included: EMILY BATES, JULIA BURNS, PAT JOHNSON, SUE GAGNON, CHARLENE FREBERG, FRANCES MERIGAN, ESTELLE FITZGERALD, DEBBIE TIBBETTS, KATHY TURNER, RUTH TROTTIER, SHARON HAMBARIAN, DONNA HANSON, NANCY LEACH & VIRGINIA COON. Eyewitnesses were MICHELLE MELANSON, PEGGY GIBBONS, and KATHY LIBBY. Presiding over the case was Judge THOMAS GNONG.

We passed by the construction site, where RICHARD DUMAS is in charge. Under him was KERRY KILGREW, foreman, giving explicit verbal instructions to his crew of hard-hats: LANCE HAMMOND, LEE HICKEY, JOHN KENNEDY, & JOHN WILLIAMS. Looking on are the building designers--ELLEN SMITH and LINDA MACDONALD.

Our next stop is at the Playboy Club, where we see owner ED COTTER with his bunnies SHEILA CODY, MARY LONSDALE, & BONNIE BOOTHBY. It is almost time for the party to begin, so we go to our rooms at JOAN CLAWSON's Moon-tel to freshen up. We are greeted by receptionist SUE MATTSON. The bellhops--SHEEHY, WELLS, MANN, and LEAVITT--grab our bags. As we approach our rooms, the chambermaids--DONNA CUTTER, DONNA LEACH, DOREEN FRAZIER, JOYCE HAMBARIAN, ANGELA O'CONNOR, and BETHANY CRANDALL--help us get settled.

We all get on our moon-bus to go to the party, and once we got there, we realized that we had left JAY MACK behind--again. The party is beginning, but that's another story we had better not go into.

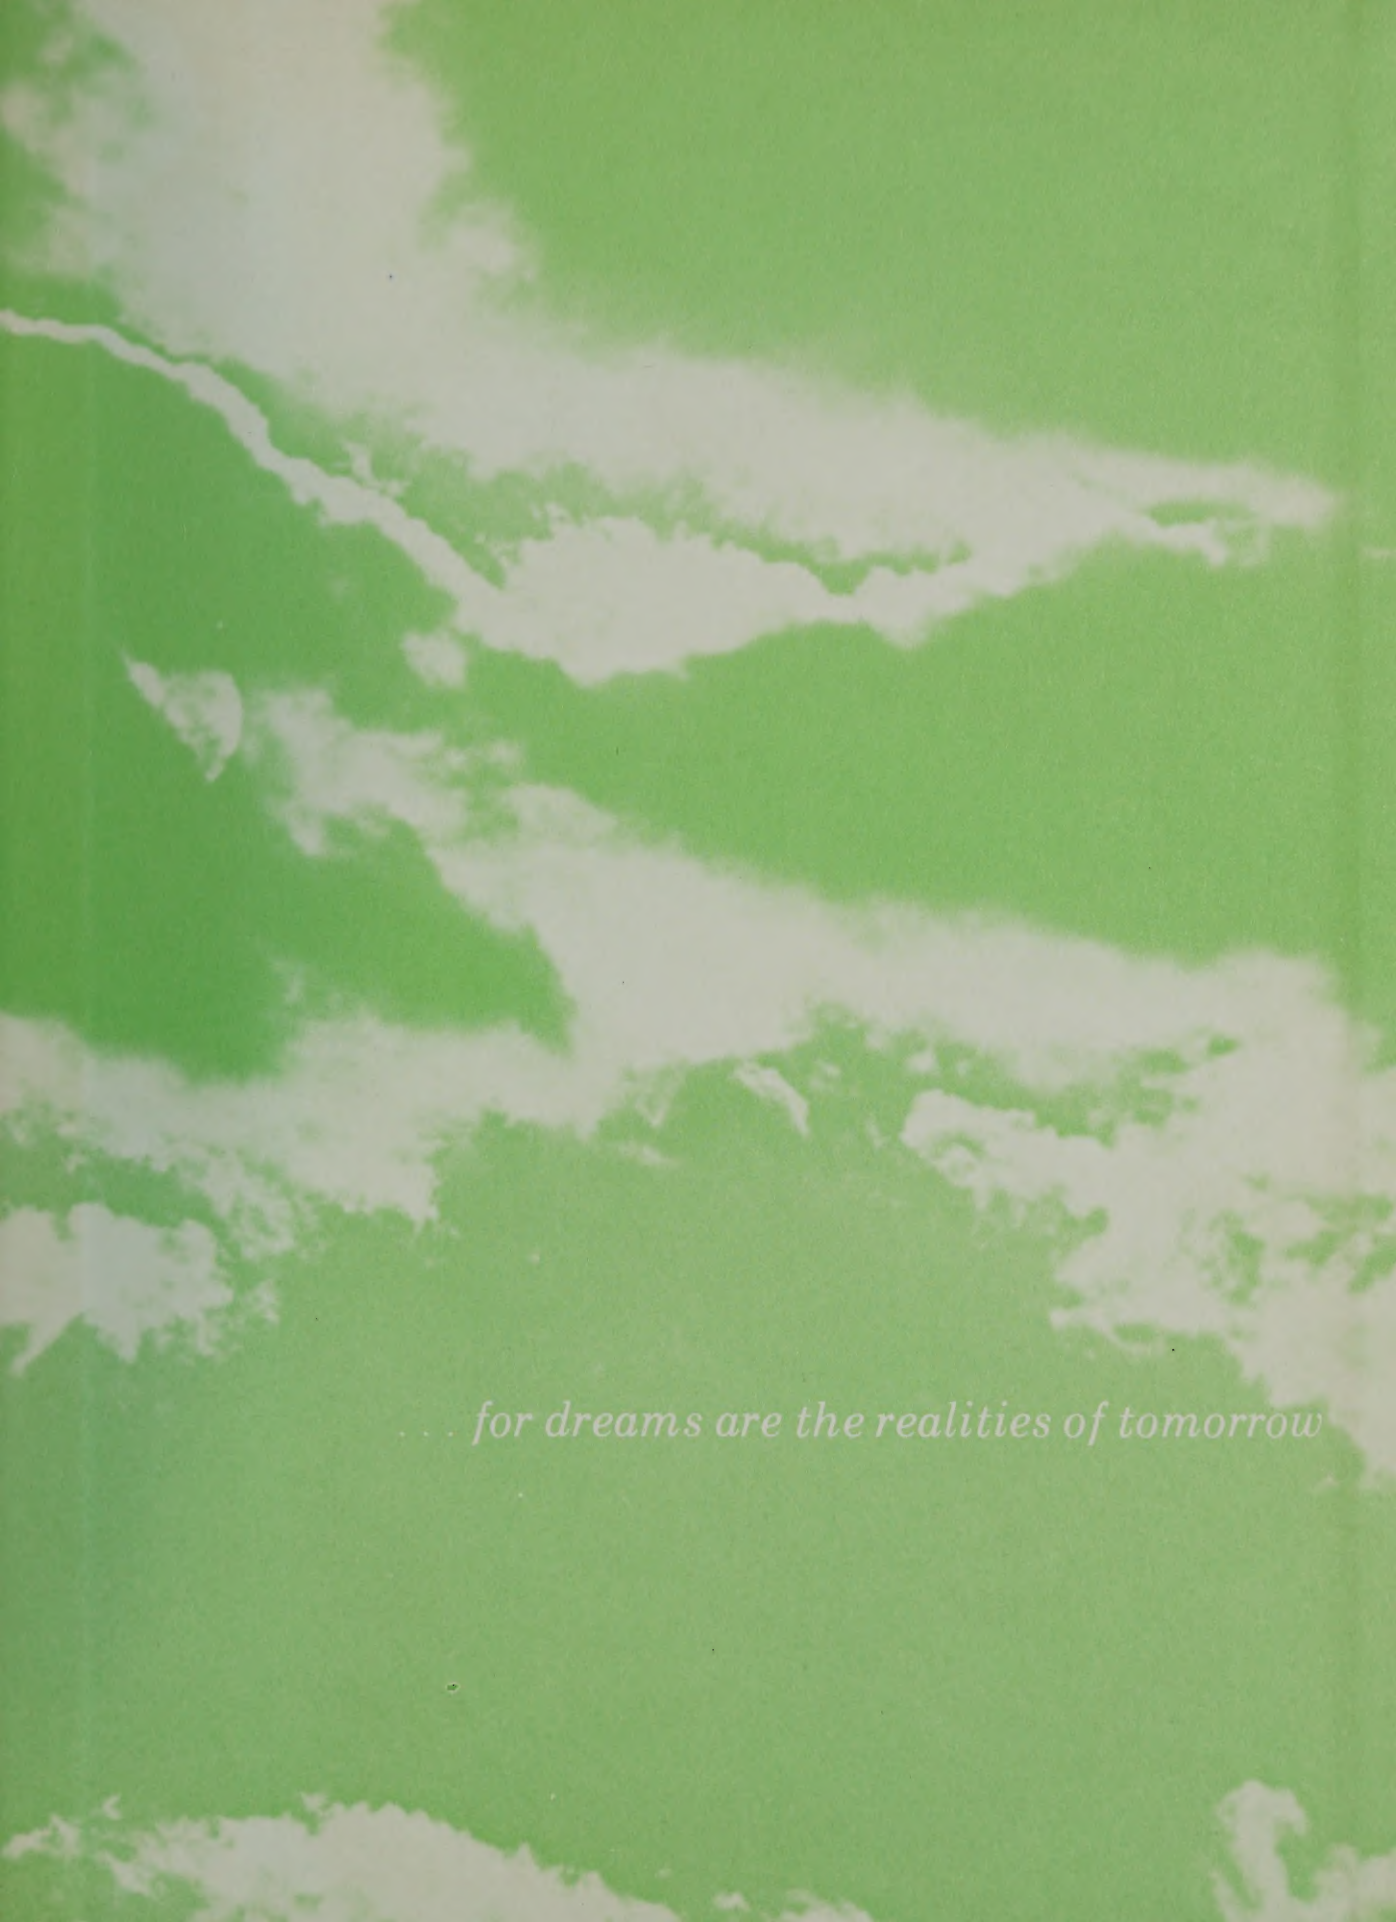

So that's the reunion of '73
Filled with happiness & glee.
